Wabash Valley Right to Life

In the pews at St. Patrick Church you w again, find the fliers for the Right to Life that you may help chose billboards an signs to up in the Terre Haute Deaner area. This can be done as a business group, family or individual participator Be sure to check which design you thir is best, and make a contribution either the collection plate or by sending a contribution to:

times have you given to a solicitor, if only to get them to move on? There are also transactions that might or might not be “giving” that are definitely not done with love (I’m thinking of taxes, fees and so on!). The other half of the quote says one cannot love without giving. I would agree with that as well. Think of all the people and causes you love and consider how many of them you have given time, money or other assistance.

Why is giving important?

Giving is part of how we show love. We give of ourselves, our time, our talents, our treasures and even our blood as a way of helping, protecting and nurturing that which we love.

Giving makes us feel good, and everyone I know enjoys helping others. Some have said it is from our tribal roots, but I know that even when I give something to a stranger, even a smile or a kind word, that I feel good. Have you had a similar experience?

Where can I apply this in my life?

Think for a moment of how your life would be different without the gifts of love you have received from others, like your parents, school teachers, counselors, clergy, other mentors, helpers or friends? Yes, for some it is their job, they get paid to do it, but also they love their job and give freely of themselves to help others.

Now take a moment and think of the times you have given to a person or cause you have given to that made you feel good. When I do that, I feel good all over again, just thinking of the giving, how about you?

There is nothing more satisfying (to me, at least) than watching a face light up with joy, knowing the gift came with my love.

There are plenty of people, charities and causes out there in need of gifts, and you’re just the person to help them. So, if you haven’t found a cause, pick one, and be sure to spread a little love with your gifts, that’s what being a disciple of Christ is all about!

Together through prayer and service, Deacon Mike

The Chapel of Divine Mercy would like to offer you the Gift of Peace during the upcoming holidays. Please make a visit anytime you would like, for as long as you like. Then maybe consider taking one of the open time slots on a regular basis.

Check the bulletin boards at the entrances to the church or in the chapel for available hours. Call Roni Schmidt at 812-877-4365 or 812-243-3764 or email her at ronischmidt9@gmail.com.

Very special thanks to Brad Detamore for repairing the chapel sign, it looks great!
