

SAINT PATRICK SAINT MARGARET MARY

First Reading:

I am the LORD, there is no other,
there is no God besides me.
It is I who arm you, though you know me not. (Is 45:1, 5)

Psalms:

Give the Lord glory and honor. (Ps 96)

Second Reading:

For our gospel did not come to you
in word alone,
but also in power and in the Holy Spirit
and with much conviction.
(1 Thes 1:1-5b)

Gospel:

At that Jesus said to them,
"Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God." (Mt 22:21b)

©LPi

First Reading:

Cyrus was king of the mighty Persian Empire (559-529 BC) while Israel was exiled in Babylon. The prophet Isaiah revealed God would use Cyrus to free Israel from captivity. What lesson do you think Israel was supposed to learn from this revelation?

Second Reading:

In his opening remarks in First Thessalonians, Paul speaks of the power and conviction with which he preached the gospel to them. How do you show the conviction of your faith?

Gospel:

The religious leaders in Jerusalem were unable to trap Jesus with a seemingly trick question. How do you respond to non-believers who try to challenge or trick you in matters of your beliefs?

Midst of a Challenge

Niagara Falls seems to be a beautiful place to visit. I've never been there, but I have listened to people who visited there describe what a magnificent place it is to visit. However, if you ever watched on YouTube of Nik Wallenda walk across Niagara Falls on a 1800ft wire that was only 5 inches in diameter, it would seem to be a dangerous place. But adding to the drama was the danger of the height; the rushing water below; wind threatening his balance; the spray from the falls challenging his footing, and a thick mist obscured Nik's sight. Amid these perils, he said that he prayed a lot and praised God through the midst of this challenge.

Our life is sometimes like walking a tightrope. Many perils and temptations try to knock us off our salvation journey. Praying to God in the midst of a challenge may mean overriding our natural instincts. We tend to self-protection, strategizing, and worry. By praying, we can guard our hearts against troubling thoughts and self-reliance.

Just remember, that in every battle we face, God has our back!!!

Together through prayer and service,
Deacon Mike

ANNUAL CRAFT FAIR AND BAKE SALE has been cancelled for this November due to the Covid- 19.

THE CENTENNIAL COMMITTEE will be offering winter hoodies, sweatshirts and caps, as well as, the normal polo shirts, and keepsake Christmas ornaments. These will make excellent Christmas gifts for family and friends. We hope that you will stop by the table to place your order for the holidays.

MASS OF REMEMBRANCE for all parishioners, who have died this year, will be the weekend of November 1. Family members will be invited to bring up a rose during the roll call at both Masses.

FRYAM next meeting for Theology Uncorked will be on Saturday, October 17th, 6:30pm in the Fr. Joe Kern Deanery Center, 1801 Poplar Street with Fr. Savio presenting. We encourage all those interested in the Young Adult Ministry to join us!

Sisters to host Coffee with the Mystics series

Join the Sisters of Providence of Saint Mary-of-the-Woods, Indiana, for the third of the four-part Coffee with the Mystics series, on Nov. 8, as Sister Jan Craven will explore the life of Brother David Steindl-Rast. Cost is $10 per person to attend, which will take place on the second Sunday in November and December. The event will take place from 1-3 p.m., at the Foley Hall in Providence Spirituality & Conference Center, or those interested may attend virtually and a link will be provided during registration. For more information, visit or call 812-535-2952.

With the completion of their training, our Stephen Ministers are ready to provide quality, one-to-one caring ministry on behalf of our congregation. If you or someone you know could benefit from the listening ear, caring presence, and Christ-centered support of a Stephen Minister, talk to Father Dan or one of our Stephen Leaders.
