

SAINT PATRICK SAINT MARGARET MARY

First Reading:

Thus far shall you come but no farther,
and here shall your proud waves be stilled! (Job 38:11)

Psalms:

Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting. (Ps 107)

Second Reading:

So whoever is in Christ is a new creation:
the old things have passed away;
behold, new things have come.
(2 Cor 5:17)

Gospel:

Then he asked them, "Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?"
They were filled with great awe and said to one another, "Who then is this whom even wind and sea obey?" (Mk 4:40-41)

Next weekend, our special collection will be for Peter's Pence.

The Peter Pence Collection drives its name from an ancient custom. In the ninth-century England, King Alfred the Great collected money, a "pence" from landowners as financial support for the Pope. Today, the Peter's Pence Collection supports the Pope's philanthropy by giving the Holy Father means to provide emergency assistance to those in need because of natural disaster, war, oppression and disease.

An official invitation to parishioners of St. Margaret Mary and St. Patrick Parishes:

With the up and coming dates of transitions, the following events are being added to the parish calendars:

As we bid adieu to Fr. Dan Bedel, Donna McDaniel, Jerry Moorman, Linnea Friesen and Jimmy Priester, there will be an open house for parishioners of both parishes on June 27th, from 1:00-6:00pm in the Moran Family Life Center at St. Patrick Church.

The following dates will be as we welcome Fr. Benjamin Syberg into our parishes:

Wednesday, July 7th, 6:00pm, Mass at St. Patrick Church (there will be no morning Mass on this day) with a parish-wide carry-in dinner in the Moran Family Life Center.

Thursday, July 8th, 6:00pm, Mass at St. Margaret Mary Church (there will be no morning Mass on this day) with a parish-wide carry-in dinner in the Dede Center/Legacy Room.

This will be a wonderful, casual time to share your favorite dish and have an opportunity to introduce yourself and your family to Fr. Ben as he begins this new journey with us. Absolutely everyone is invited to attend at their parish and be a part of this meet-and-greet! We hope to see you there!

Each parish will provide drinks and paper goods for the dinner.

Jerry's Corner

Dear Parishioners:

As my retirement is only 10 days away, this is my last column for the parish bulletin. It has been an amazing 22 years as a staff member of St. Margaret Mary. Throughout the last 22 years we have journeyed together to be a beacon of welcome and prayer on the south side of Terre Haute. Many of you have asked what my future plans are. For the near future, I plan to sit back and have time for myself, family, and of course Mia, my Boston Terrier. I hope to stay connected with all of you as you are family to me. July 7, Fr. Ben Syberg will become the pastor of St. Margaret Mary and St. Patrick. Please welcome him with the same open arms as you have to me. Treat him well!!! Be assured you will be in good hands. God Bless!

REVERSE RAFFLE COMMITTEE has determined a date for this year's raffle. It will be held on Sunday afternoon, September 26. This year's raffle will be held at the Operator's Union Hall on Hwy 41 S. The festivities will begin at 1 pm with food provided by the parish with the raffle to follow. There will be a silent auction and additional items are needed to supplement the items donated for last year's raffle. This year the committee has decided to offer 3 cash prizes! 1st Prize will be $10,000, 2nd Prize-$2000, 3rd prize-$1000. Winners will need not be present to win and only 300 tickets will be sold. The committee hopes this will spark new interest in the raffle. The afternoon will be casual dress and families are encouraged to come and enjoy the time together as a parish. Activities for children are being planned. Mark this date on your calendar! More details will follow with a letter in the next few weeks.

To thrive Spiritually

My wife Cindy often tells me, "Mike, you eat too fast! Slow down and enjoy your meal." I'm usually done long before she is, because she takes the time to savor every bite.

I wonder how many of us rush through reading Scripture without really savoring it. I'm guilty as charged! In Psalm 119:103 it says, "How sweet to my tongue is your promise, sweeter than honey to my mouth."

What are the benefits of savoring the rich food of Scripture? What comes to mind is a daily meal of God's Word helps us to keep the anxiety, pride, fear and temptations from plaguing our lives. It strengthens us on our journey through life. The Good News gives us wisdom and understanding in our decision making each day. Just as our bodies distributes the nutrients from the food we eat, God's Word, when digested, nourishes our minds, hearts and souls for a better living.

Rather than grabbing God's Word on the run just before dashing out the door, set up a place and time where we can really savor our relationship with God. God provides the ingredients we need to survive spiritually.

Together through prayer and service,
Deacon Mike

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Do we trust that God will take care of us and has things under control? When life gets difficult, shaky or painful, we may find ourselves wondering what we may have done to deserve this fate. Often, we go to great lengths to explain suffering away, as if it has no purpose and ought not to exist. In an attempt to get God on our side in our battle against suffering, our prayer can mirror a question asked by the disciples: do you not care that we are perishing? As we are asking that question of God, God is asking of us: do you not yet have faith? It is for certain that God does not intentionally inflict pain upon us. God has no sinister plot to test our faith or trip us up. Rather, the unconditional, restorative and rejuvenating power of God's love can bring light out of the greatest darkness and gives hope in the midst of deep despair. We have to be patient and ride out the storm. It is our task to deepen our faith that God will calm the wind and draw meaning out of that which seems senseless.
